

"13 Reminders as We Regather" (Romans 14:1-15:7)

INTRODUCTION

- Our aim is unity (Psalm 133).

THE CONTEXT OF ROMANS 14

-	Theme: the	of God
-	This is a section about mutual	acceptance (14:1, 5,	13; 15:5, 7).
-	The cause for division in the checlebration.	nurch was	_ and special	of
-	KEY POINT: When we are	, it's no	ot about	_ .
REMINDE	RS FOR REGATHERING
l				_ (14:1-2).

- What is the conscience?

II			(14:3)
	-	An example from the life of Peter in Acts 11 and Galatians 2:11-13
	-	Cf. James 1:19
III			(14:4)
IV		A 5-Step Process for Forming a Conviction	(14:5)
		 Allow others to have a different view. Commit yourself to learn their view.
		3. Study their view from different angles and sources.

CONCLUSION

TAKE IT A STEP FURTHER

- Opinions vs. Absolutes

- 1) What opinions do you have about the pandemic that put your relationships with other Christians at risk?
- 2) Are you willing to lay those opinions aside for the sake of unity? Can you live without them? Explain your answer.
- 3) Book Recommendation How to be a Caring Christian by Warren Wiersbe

4. Test their view against God's Word.5. Arrive at an informed conviction.