Missionary of the Month:

Bruce and Julie Powell

- Bruce is currently doing evaluation flights for applicants for the next class of apprentices. Pray for safety for the flights and wisdom as they choose the next class of apprentices. That class will start in January or February 2026.
- Julie is feeling better after having another iron infusion, but the cause of the anemia still hasn't been determined. After recent lab work, the hematologist has suggested doing another colonoscopy. Even though Julie is feeling a little better, she is weary of dealing with this.
